

Do not implement any proposal which would weaken Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. Our law has been extremely effective. My "junk" calls have been reduced from two or three every day to about five in the last three months. This is a blessing when your knees hurt as much as mine do. I feel very strongly about this.